17 Governors Send Delegates To Confab Here

Senator Walker Extols Man-

By W. O. McGechan
The National Board of Boxing Control, with delegates from seventeen states in attendance, started a three-day session yesterday with a luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria and a meeting at the headquarters of the International Sporting Club. The aim of the board is to standardize boxing and to bring it back into every state in the Union under the rules framed by the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the rules which have been adopted by the State of New York.

The gathering, which assembled yesterdy is the result of almost a year's labor by the founders of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board and of the international Sporting Club. The idea was started just prior to the Dempsey-Willard bout at Toledo, Ohio, when Willard, Dempsey and Tex Rickard, the promoter, were licensed by the Army, Navy and Civilian Board, which is now organizing permanently under the name of the National Board of Boxing Control.

Senator James Walker, of New York By W. O. McGeehan

ing Control.

Senator James Walker, of New York, who framed the boxing bill now in force in this state and which the board will attempt to have passed by every state Legislature, presided at the luncheon and made a brief speech extelling the manly art. The burden of the solon's plea was "Don't hit below the belt." He declared that the fact that the Governors of seventeen states had seen fit to appoint delegates to the conference meant a great deal for the future of boxing.

Committees Report to-day

William A. Gavin, formerly a member of the National Sporting Club of London and a leading light in the international Club of New York, was present to hand the keys of the city to the visiting delegates. Committees appointed yesterday will report to-day. Those present at the first American boxing congress were:

Robert J. Se berlich, Minnesota; H. E. Hurst, Oregon; Herbert C. Dean, Rhode Island; Latrobe Cogswell Maryland; C. C. Hawkins, Connecticut; John S. Smith, New Jersey; Matt J. Hinkel, Dewitt Fisher and L. H. Lightcap, Ohio; Frank Derice, Maine; Joseph Johnson, New York; Walker Liginger, Wisconsin; R. C. Burke, New Orleans; W. A. Tremblay, Montans; T. J. Mulqueen, Toronto; William H. Rocap, Pennsylvania; Robert G. Anderson, Kentucky; William Kramer, Arkansas. The committees appointed were as follows:

Ways and Means—Joseph Johnson, chairman; William Rocap, R. G. Anderson, John Smith, R. J. Seiberlich, Credentials—Latrobe Cogswell, chairman; H. C. Dean, W. A. Trenbiay, Rules and Regulations—C. C. Hawkins, chairman; H. E. Hurst, R. C. Burke. -Laws and Constitution-W. H. nger, Latrobe Cogswell.

By-Laws and Constitution—W. H. Lisinger, Latrobe Cogswell.

William A. Gavin, speaking for the International Sporting Club, was highly optimistic as to what the conference might achieve for boxing. The chaotic state of the game is too well known. Some states have decisions, some have not. Some states do not permit boxing at all. The various states that do permit boxing have different limits as to the number of rounds.

The aim of the board of control is to have a uniform law for every state, a law modeled on the one now in force in New York State. This permits fifteen rounds to a decision, which allows champlonships to be decided whether or not a knockout is scored.

Champions To Be Active

Champions To Be Active Champions To Be Active

If the passage of a uniform law will come a national regulation of the boxing game. For instance, the champions in the various classes dictate their own terms to the contenders and defend their titles only when it pleases them.
The board of boxing control plans to pass a rule to the effect that a champlon must defend his title at least once every six months, or be considered as a retired champion.

For a few states to pass such a law.

For a few states to pass such a law would be ineffectual. But if the Board of Bexing Control gets the authority and the recognition it is seeking such a ruling would stand. The board also plans other reforms for the standardization and betterment of the boxing rame.

Cortainly the rule to force chamtions to perform or make way for new blood is vitally necessary. Dempsey, Wilson and Kilbane have been consisent offenders in this regard, because here has been no organization with he authority to declare their titles origited.

First American Boxing Congress Meets to Standardize Ring Sport Throughout Country Alexander Again is Pitching

Grover Cleveland Alexander, the ace of the Chicago Cubs' box corps, for the second season in succession earned the title of the leading pitcher of the National League, according to the official averages for 1920, released last night. His average of least runs earned per game of 1.91 gave ly Art and Urges Regulations Used in New York leased last night. His average of least runs earned per game of 1.91 gave him the honor again as being the most effective twirler in the parent major league. Alexander's average in 1919 was 1.72. Charles B. Adams, the Pittsburgh veteran, is second, with an average of 2.16.

Burleigh Grimes, of the Brooklyn league champions, turned in the best percentage in the matter of games won and lost. His 23 victories and 11 defeats gave him a fine mark of .676. Alex is second with a percentage of .659. Grimes is rated third in effectiveness.

Alexander also was the leader in numerous other lines connected with his specialty. He won the most games, 27; he pitched in the most complete games, 33; he pitched in the most innings, 363, and enjoyed the longest winning streak of 11 straight. He also led in strike-outs, with 173. The great Alex, on the other hand, pitched to the greatest number of batters, 1,447, and allowed the most hits, 335.

Adams gave a marvelous exhibition of control by permitting but 18 of the 1,035 batsmen facing him to get bases on balls, this in the 263 of the 1,035 batsmen facing him to get bases on balls, this in the 263 of the victorious American championship golf course at Pine-hours for the victorious American championship golf course at Pine-hours for the qualifying round for the demand to the qualifying round for the championship of the Winter Golf bourne, Australia. There he will compate a long with Tilden, Washburn and matches on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The Americans will meet an Australian team on that occasion. Alexander also was the leader in numerous other lines connected innings he pitched. In 1919 Adams, pitching a like number of innings to 1,017 batters, issued 23 bases on balls. Adams also led in shut-out

American Forced to Extend Stay in Antipodes; Tennis Officials Renominated

By Fred Hawthorne

Because of a shipping strike in Auckland, New Zealand, William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, national dou-bles champion of the United States and

United States.

The delegates to the annual meeting of the United States Lawn Tennis Association at the Hotel McAlpin, on Saturday, February 5, will not have much to argue about when it comes to electing officers for the year 1921, if they follow the lead of the nominating committee, which has already prepared the list of candidates for office.

In only a few minor positions are there any changes suggested, and there is small doubt but that the slate will go through as named. In sending out the call for the annual meeting on Saturday, George W. Wightman, the secretary, announced that pressure of business made it impossible for him to continue in office, and the nominating committee, of which Charles S. Landers is chairman, therefore placed Charles Garland, of Pittsburgh in nomination for the place.

The other officers were renominated as follows: President, Julian S. Myrick, of New York; vice-president, Edwin F. Torrey, of Clinton; treasurer, Joseph M. Jennings, of Philadelphia, Sectional delegates, to serve until 1923; Middle States, Paul W. Gibbons, Philadelphia; middle Atlantie, Abner Y. Leach, of Washington; in A. mourtsin, G. O. Romney, of Salt Lake City, Delegates-at-large, to serve for two years: Craig Biddle, Philadelphia; R. Norris Williams 2d, of Boston, and Watson M. Washburn, of New York,

L. H. Waidner, of Chicago, is named to fill the unexpired term of Charles Garland, and former presidents nominated for the executive committee ar George T. Adee, Robert D. Wrenn and Harry W. Slocum.

Harry W. Slocum.

In addition to the nomination of officers, the delegates will pass on the rs, the delegates will pass on the orts of twenty-three committees reports of twenty-three committees that have been studying various tennis activities, and after this will come the awarding of the championships for 1921 and discussion of the season's

The delegates will also be asked to The delegates will also be asked to vote upon several amendments to the constitution and by-laws, but in the main these proposed changes only have to do with greater clarity of existing rules and by-laws. The proposed amendment to the amateur rule, forbidding the practice of naming racquets after famous players has apparently raised little opposition among players or delegates.

"Little Bill." who was anxious to get home as soon as possible after the challenge round Davis Cup matches, had planned to sail from Auckland on January 3, but now he will have to delay his departure until after the middle of this month.

Tilden, Washburn and Hardy will remain in Australia at Adelaide, on January 20, 21 and 22, and against an all-Australian combination at Sydney, the last week of the month.

May Play Japanese Stars

The team will leave Sydney on January 26, en route to the United States by way of the Orient, stopping on the way at Manfla, Hong Kong and Japan, where the players will probably play some exhibition matches with the best of the Japanese court stars. If the scheuled is adhered to the team will reach this country about the first of March.

A total of more than 25:00 miles will have been covered by Tilden, Johnston, Washburn and Hardy in their successful quest for the Davis Cup by the time they arrive home. But what is mere distance when we reflect that the great old cup is coming back to the United States.
